

Sunday, September 2, 7:00 pm

DIFFERENT DRUMS OF IRELAND

The music of peace from Northern Ireland

"The drum is the heartbeat of our nation. Listen to it." –Roy Arbuckle, DDI

For 15 years, DDI have brought together the indigenous drums and traditions of Ireland, breaking down cross-cultural walls and replacing sectarian symbolism with heart-pounding, foot-stomping music. What started as an exercise in community relations evolved to a world-music powerhouse incorporating drums of Ireland, Japan and Africa with traditional dance tunes and folk-rock original songs.

Where: Unity Center of Columbia,
1600 W. Broadway (corner of Manor
Dr., near the Gerbes shopping center)

Admission at the door:

$12 adults / $6 students & seniors
Kids 12 & under admitted free

www.moceltic.org or call 573-442-2048

