Irish Traditional Music

CD Release Concert

Tim Langen (Fiddle)

and

Helen Gubbins
(Button Accordion / Vocals)

With special guest

Jesse Langen (Guitar)

Tim Langen was inspired by his grandfather to learn to play the fiddle. He started learning with the Suzuki method at age five and has been teaching since he was 16. He has played in Ireland, Boston, Chicago, and locally, with such musicians as Tim Britton, Dennis Cahill, Liz Carroll, Marty Fahey, Jimmy Keane, Larry Nugent, and John Williams.

Helen Gubbins is a musician and singer from County Limerick, Ireland. A music graduate of University College Cork, she teaches part-time as college lecturer in music and teaches high school music through the Irish language. Her performances of Irish traditional music and song are in regular demand at home and abroad. Helen served as artist-in-residence for Central Missouri Celtic Arts in the summers of 2003 and 2004.

Tim and Helen will be joined for this concert by Jesse Langen, who teaches and performs Irish and classical music on guitar and many other instruments. Jesse's students have won numerous grants and awards, and his own playing is in great demand in Chicago, Columbia, and points between and beyond.
