Helen Gubbins is a musician and singer from County Limerick Ireland. A music graduate of University College Cork, she works part-time as college lecturer in music and also teaches high-school music through the Irish language. Her performances of Irish traditional music and song are in regular demand at home and abroad.

Tim Langen was inspired by his grandfather to learn to play the fiddle. He started learning with the Suzuki method at age five and has been teaching since he was 16. He has played in Ireland, Boston, Chicago, and locally, with such musicians as Tim Britton, Dennis Cahill, Liz Carroll, Marty Fahey, Jimmy Keane, Larry Nugent, and John Williams.

Jesse Langen teaches and performs Irish and classical music on guitar and many other instruments. Jesse's students have won numerous grants and awards, and his own playing is in great demand in Chicago, Columbia, and points between and far beyond.
